

Côtes du Rhône rosé

« Fleur de Coton »

The story : Cotton flower, these words sound delicately to the ear, and give an aromatic glimpse of the wine.... But Coton is also the name of Jeanne, the winegrower's daughter!

Grapes : 70 % Grenache noir - 5 % Syrah - 25 % Cinsault.

Terroirs : large pebbles with black clay, sands.

Age of Vine : 55 years.

Area : 1,50 ha.

Viticulture : organic farming. Ploughing, Cordon de Royat pruning. Compost of sheep for soil life.

Winemaking : harvest in early September. Direct pressure and bleeding of red vats. Settling and fermentation at low temperature. No malolactic fermentation. Sterilizing filtration before bottling.

Tasting : soft pink color. Delicate nose with flowers of cherry and vine peach. Pleasant palate with aromas of citrus fruits and gingers . A fashion design rosé.

Wine and food pairing : aperitive, grill, pizzas, seed salads and vegetarian dishes.

Aging capacity : 2 years
